NAVY RELEASES FOUR HONDO BOYS

Arriving home almost simultaneously last weekend following their release from the U. S. Navy, four Hondo boys are being greeted joyously by family and friends alike. They are Clyde "Buddy" Johnson, Robert
"Bobby" Van Fleet, Marcellus Garrison and Guido Schweers.

"Buddy," son of Mr. and Mrs. O.
C. Johnson, received his discharge last Wednesday at Camp Wallace, Texas. He arrived there from Philadelphia, where his ship, the U. S. S.
Chester, had been docked after coming from the Pacific. He served in the Navy 28 months, over 22 months on active duty on the Chester, a heavy cruiser.

Bobby also received his discharge at Camp Wallace last Friday. He was in the service two years, serving on an airplane carrier, the U. S. S. Lunga Point, in the Pacific for 22 months. Bobby is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Van Fleet.
Both Bobby and Clyde are going to enjoy a summer vacation and rest before they make any plans for the future.

Marcellus reached home Saturday from the West Coast and is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Garrison, and sister, Betty Ann. Marcellus was in the Navy almost two years, and except for time spent in boot camp was stationed in the Hawaiian Islands. He was assigned to a Naval Hospital. Marcellus plans to re-enter Texas A. & M. College this fall.

Ensign Guido Schweers, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Schweers of Hondo, arrived home Friday on terminal leave. Guido was in service time in the Pacific. He was assigned

SPECIAL STATEHOOD DAY RITES TO BE OBSERVED AT D'HANIS

Commemorating Statehood Day on Sunday, June 9th, D'Hanis will observe special rites, including Mass at 7 a. m. in Holy Cross Catholic Church, pilgrimage to Cross Hill, and a basket picnic. Celebrating the Mass will be Father Martin Nester Ender-le, who will be ordained to the priesthood on June 2nd. The young priest is a descendant of original colonists of D'Hanis and has many relatives residing there now. The following sketch of Father Enderle is taken from The Southern Messenger of May 23rd.

Martin Nester Enderle will offer
his first Solemn Mass Sunday, June 2, in St. Anthony's Church, Beaumont, the pastor, Rr. Rev. E. A. Kelly, P. A., V. G., assisting as arch-priest, Deacon will be Rev. Alfred Raye, of Galveston, cousin of Father Enderle, and subdeacon, Rev. E. A.
Holub, Beaumont.

The sermon will be by Rev. John Cody, of Palestine.
Rev. Ernest Brumley, of St. Mary's Seminary, will assist as master of ceremonies, and Seminarians Paul Takacs, Allen Ray Doga and Albert Beck will serve as thurifer and acolytes.

Father Enderle, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Enderle, of Beaumont, attended St. Anthony's Parochial and High School, there, before entering the seminary at La Porte. He has a sister, M. Fidelis, in the Dominican Order of St. Christopher's School, Houston. A cousin, Rev. Alfred Raye, is stationed at St. Petrick's Church, Galveston, while another cousin, Raymond Enderle, of San Antonio, is studying in Redemptorist Preparatory College, Kirkwood, Missouri.

He has another cousin, Raymond Enderle, of San Antonio, studying for the priesthood in Kirkwood, Mo., and two cousins in the religious life,
Sister M. Damian, C. D. P., Our Lady of the Lake Convent, San Antonio, and Sister M. Vivienne, of the Sisters of the Congregation of Holy Cross, in Indiana.

Father Enderle is a nephew of Mr.
and Mrs. John Rieber, of D'Hanis, and of Mrs. W. A. Enderle and of Mr. and Mrs. Martin T. Ryan, San Antonio.

After his First Solemn Mass in St.

Father Martin Nester Enderle

Anthony's Church, Beaumont, Father Enderle will visit D'Hanis, his father's native town, and celebrate Mass Sunday, June 9, at 7 o'clock in Holy Cross Church, in commemoration of Statehood Day in that community.

Father Enderle is a great-great-grandson of Martin Nester, one of the original land-grant colonists of Medina Co., who with his wife, the former Anna Raba, came from Germany to Galveston 101 years ago.

They chose D'Hanis as their home.
Two months later, Fidele and Johanna Baumgarten Enderle arrived at the same port and joined the Nesters in Medina County.

While the colonists were settling the region west of Hondo along Seco Creek and at Old D'Hanis a mile east of the present site, Mexico was agitating for the region between the Nueces River and the Rio Grande.

Meanwhile, the colonists under the leadership of Nester and Enderle made steady progress both in friendship with the Comanche Indians and in opening up the Southwest by routing a railroad through the area.

A feature of the Statehood Day celebration is the pilgrimage to Cross Hill—a mound adorned by the original cross placed there by Nester.

A basket picnic will follow.

Managing Editor

The Old Man Says:

With this issue of the Anvil Herald
our ownership ceases.

From June 1st (tomorrow) prop-rietorship vests in Mr. William E.
Berger to whom, after more than forty-six years, during which the paper has missed only one issue—the between Christmas and New Year edition of 1900-1901—we turn over the ownership, management, editorship and publication rights of the paper and job printing business.

All outstanding accounts for advertising and printing to this date are due and payable to us and will be billed promptly as possible. All outstanding advertising contracts will be carried out by Mr. Berger and from this date all new or renewal contracts are to be made with him. All subscriptions will continue without interruption and all subscription renewals from whatever expiration date are payable to him.

Our reason for thus retiring is our advancing years—now well advanced into our 73rd year—and the desire of our daughter to engage in another calling.

In turning over to Mr. Berger what has been the result of our life's work, we feel that we are leaving it to a worthy successor and one who will not only maintain the traditions of the publication but backed by youthful energy, modern ideas and means to carry on, he will be able to give you a better service than it has been possible for us to give.

Hoping he will have that same faith reposed in him by all our friends and patrons that we have,
and that you will back his efforts and his paper with your continued good will and patronage, we thank you one and all from a grateful heart and bid him God speed.

Not good-bye; just thanks to old friends and good wishes to our successor from the Old Man. "Now is the time to subscribe!"

Kathleen Norris Says:

All Yours for Nothing

Bell Syndicate—WNU Features.

"The fundamental essentials of food, shelter, love, home, books, light, water, safety from fear, we take calmly for granted."

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

SOME time ago our town sent crates and crates of clothing to stricken Europe. Probably your town did, too. We stripped our closets of everything warm and wearable that we could spare, and of some things we could not spare, for the sake of shivering women and babies overseas.

Our thanks come principally in the consciousness of a good deed well done, and the knowledge that many a shaken, forlorn mother is grateful to the God to whom she prayed for help, and whose ministers we were privileged to be. But sometimes a little trickle of personal thanks creeps through, too, and such a tribute came to me this week from an unknown friend in Poland, whose small daughters are wearing my granddaughters' coats this winter.

This woman lived in America for several years, and writes in good English. She has one room in an almost - destroyed building, windows have recently been put back, she says, and running water is only a few hundred feet away.

"Water is such a miracle," says the letter. "And to have this whole quiet room to ourselves seems to us a miracle, too. Food is scarce, but thanks to the Quaker and the Red Cross it is sure, and fear is gone. If you could know what it means not to be afraid!"

Kin Starved to Death.

"My husband, both brothers, my father, were starved to death, or died for the want of water. I hid with my children in the ruins of the city for many weeks. Now all that is over. Now we walk the streets freely, we can talk, we can make friends. Now I can get up early and watch the sunrise, and stop in church for a few minutes. And now with spring beginning, what beauties on every hand! We have a jar of wild flowers, the new potatoes are coming along, soon we will have beans and cherries — every day some new delight. Someday, we say, we will live out on a farm, for the farms need hands, and I am familiar with dairy work."

"In the old days," the letter concludes, "I wanted so much! My husband and I had a well-furnished flat, a car; I could buy china and clothes, there were dinner parties and wedding feasts. How fast it all vanished! Our home gone, our securities in the bank confiscated, strangers everywhere, my husband's job lost, himself a prisoner, and my dear father, who would so gladly have helped us, gone in his turn. There was no work and no help for me, the wife of a patriot; we begged, we starved, we crept out of sight. My younger child was born in a shed, with an old shepherd and sheep to keep us company in the bitter winter."

"Now we are so rich! Every little new home that is being built or rehabilitated seems to belong to me. The moon, shining down through the old trees, the church-bells ringing, the newly-plowed field—how beautiful they all are! When I see work and restoration beginning again, and lights in houses, and hear women calling their children and laugh-

"The beauty of sunlight on snow."

TAKEN FOR GRANTED

Even the poorest Americans have much to be thankful for, compared to people in Europe and Asia. Such simple things as water and plain food, a tight roof and some kind of heating, are often difficult to obtain over much of the war-devastated countries. Warm clothing is very scarce. Medicine is hard to get excepting where the Red Cross or some other agency has a station. All sorts of plain, everyday necessities are missing. It is particularly hard on women with young children.

The story of a Polish woman is told in today's article. She had been accustomed to a luxury level of existence before the war. They had a fine apartment, a car, good furniture, money for travel and social events. The war changed all this. Her husband, brothers and father are all dead... they starved. She managed to survive by begging and scavenging in the ruined city. One child was born in a sheep barn. Now that hostilities have ceased, conditions are better, but there is still much suffering. She has learned to appreciate ordinary things that all of us take for granted.

ing — it seems to me that life is too beautiful to be borne. Now I can say of our enemies of yesterday, as my poor father did, dying, 'forgive them. They know not what they do!'

This letter has made me see my own environment with new eyes, and has made me wonder how much we appreciate the miracles that are all about us. Sunsets and sunrises, the glory of spring, moonlit nights in summer, and the first timid flutter of snow, these are all ours, if we will but claim them. Clear cold water, a snug roof over our head, books to read, meals—however plain—to enjoy, a smooth bed at night and deep sleep—let these things be taken away for a while, and we begin to know their value.

Worry over Trifles.

"If we can see one meal ahead for the children we feel rich," said a French woman a few years ago. "We look no further ahead than that."

And here we Americans are, fussing about the cost of spring clothes, about summer plans, about the shortage of butter and mayonnaise, about the babies' college career in the 1960s, about the lost letter and the embarrassing invitation, about the slowness of the dry cleaners and the non-delivery of the Diddy Wash. The fundamental essentials of food, shelter, love, home, books, light, water, safety from fear, we take calmly for granted. It is worry about the non-essentials that keeps us from ever seeing the breath-taking beauty of sunrise, the light of cold winter sunlight on snow, the lilacs that begin to toss and blow in the spring wind. Our own quarrelsome, complaining, discontented voices keep us from listening for Shakespeare's rain that whistles in the April wind, or sharing the immortal wine of Emily Dickenson's September.

Epidemic Fighters

Four emergency aid units now are prepared to help public health authorities combat poliomyelitis epidemics, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis announced recently.

Each unit consists of a physician, an orthopedic nurse and two physical therapists.

When called into epidemic areas the teams will help to set up facilities for patients, assist in their treatment, and instruct local physicians in the latest techniques.

THE NAVY'S BUREAUS

WASHINGTON—If Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal wants to head off the army-navy merger, he might do some merging in his own department. As it is, some of his reserve officers are about ready to believe the army is right.

Perhaps because the navy is suffering from admiralitis (too many admirals), Forrestal has set up a special duplicating public relations co-ordinator. This bureau does exactly what another bureau also does. Chief difference between them is that one is on the first floor (deck in the navy)* the other on the third floor) one is commanded by a vice admiral, the other by a rear admiral; finally, the rear admiral takes a few hours to do a job while the vice admiral sometimes takes a few days.

Hitherto, navy public relations have been handled by efficient young Rear Adm. "Min" Miller, one of the up-and-coming youngsters in the navy. If you need a speaker for a naval rally, want to stage an air show, or have a ship visit your city, Miller usually has been able to arrange it in a few hours.

But now, Vice Adm. Arthur S. Carpenter, newly appointed co-ordinator of public relations, sits in naval splendor with a staff of five senior officers, a large force of junior officers, and a small army of WAVES and enlisted men.

THE BALKY SWISS

Insiders say that Switzerland, the little nation which posed as the benign and friendly neutral, is now displaying the same tactics as the Capone gang in hanging on to Nazi loot.

The secret negotiations now going on in Washington to recover Nazi gold from Switzerland have been carefully guarded, but it has leaked out that Switzerland's policy is to keep all the gold which the Germans stole from France, Denmark, Belgium and other occupied countries and sent to Switzerland for safe-keeping.

Like the Capone gang, the Swiss won't return this looted gold to France, Denmark, Belgium and other countries from which it was stolen.

Despite all this, some treasury officials urge a lenient policy toward the Swiss. It happens that they have $1,500,000,000 of assets now frozen in this country including $500,000,000 in gold, and the French are preparing to clap a lien on these assets. Some treasury officials, however, are opposed.

Not so, however, sage Secretary of the Treasury Fred Vinson, who remembers all the Swiss collaboration with the Nazis during the war.

"Down in my state," drawled the Kentuckian, "when you bet on the wrong horse, you pay off. The Swiss bet on the wrong horse."

VETERANS COME SECOND

Young GOP Rep. James G. Fulton of Pennsylvania, a Pacific war vet., did some vigorous protesting about the way veterans are being "stood up" on surplus war goods when he called at the White House.

"Veterans are just not getting an even break in the present setup," he told the President.

The Pennsylvania congressman also gave Truman some inside slants on RFC purchases of abandoned property which would warrant congressional scrutiny. He reported that no effort is being made to sell army and navy equipment piled helter-skelter in and around a Pennsylvania glue factory purchased by the RFC in May, 1945, for use as a surplus property depot.

RED ARMY WITHDRAWS

The inscrutable Russians have a way of refusing to do something when asked, and then going ahead and doing it when not asked. For instance, Secretary of State James Byrnes has been hammering at the Russians to reduce their troops in the Balkans, Austria and Hungary.

Among other things he has warned that the United States won't send food into these countries while tremendous Russian armies are living off the land, in effect taking away the food we send in.

Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov, however, has turned a deaf ear to Byrnes' plea. He has been just as stubborn on this as about most things.

But here is the payoff. U. S. representatives in Vienna have wired the state department that the Red army has started a large scale withdrawal from Austria. There is no explanation, and state department officials are mystified as to the reason.

UNDER THE DOME

Democratic National Committee Chairman Bob Hannegan tried to submit his resignation to President Truman last week-end, but was turned down cold. Hannegan's wife and doctor are both urging him to resign. However, the President told Hannegan he could not be spared, at least until after the November elections. . . . President Truman has asked Secretary of the Interior Cap Krug to set up an interdepartmental committee to handle oil problems

Men's Shirts Convert Nicely Into Dressy or Work Aprons

By Ertta Haley

MEN'S shirts are scarce these days, and you may wonder at the wisdom of "making something out of them" in this case. But, when a shirt is so worn that it can no longer be used by the man of the family, it is welcome material for aprons, which are so useful and essential.

Shirts become worn around the collar and sleeves, also under the armholes and cuffs. After these have been turned and worn again, there's nothing much that can be done with them. In this case, you'll feel well justified and economical if you sew up an apron from them.

Before getting into the actual cutting and sewing, let me point out that not all shirts will make good aprons. The materials which you can and should use for aprons are percale, broadcloth and poplin. Those shirts of rayon are much better if converted into blouses for small fry.

The above-mentioned materials which are suitable for aprons possess these qualities—they are easy to handle, they tear, crease, hem, gather, stitch and press easily. You will also want a fabric that launders easily and one that starches nicely. Do both washing and starching before you cut the fabric.

If there is a goodly amount of material in the salvaged shirt, an apron with a bib may be made. This type of apron is especially practical if you want one for working around the kitchen or laundry.

Cut Apron on Correct Grain of Material

Cutting the apron on the correct grain of the material is very important in the appearance of the finished article. If necessary make basting stitches of the fabric both lengthwise and crosswise as a help in laying out the pattern. If you are utilizing the back of the shirt for the front of the apron, fold this in half when cutting. The front of the shirt may be used for side pieces of the apron.

If you have a man's shirt . . .

If you are a tall person, allow for sufficient length both in the front of the apron and the neck bands. Whenever possible cut the apron lengthwise. Snip tiny notches (as you see on regular patterns) where seams are to meet.

In some types of aprons where you want one particularly well fitted, you'll want darts at both sides. Make these deep or shallow, depending upon the amount of material you have or the amount of fitness you want in the apron.

The back edges of the apron are finished with narrow hems, whereas at the bottom of the apron as wide a hem as is practical is used. Even though this article is "just" an apron, learn to turn it properly when hemming. Measure the turn every inch or so, and baste before sewing.

Make a pretty apron.

If you want pockets, finish the hem on them before attempting to place them on the apron itself. After the hem is in turn the sides in, basting them, and then they will be easy to place on the apron itself. All fancy pockets should be turned and basted carefully, as they attract attention and will either make or mar the appearance unless they are properly finished. Since the pockets will usually have a lot of wear in such an article as the apron, it will be absolutely necessary to double stitch the pockets at the top and prevent tearing if they catch. Pull thread ends through to the wrong side and tie.

Panel Interest

Print and plain combine in a coat dress from Eta's spring collection. Black sleeves and skirt panels accent the black and white of the cable print.

Making the neck strap illustrates a principle of sewing which you will use often in other types of sewing such as belts, bands, double ties and trims. Piece the strap together to make it long enough. Fold the right side in. Bring two raw edges together and stitch, making a scant one-quarter inch seam. Close only one end, leaving the other open. Clip raw edges every three or four inches.

Press the seam open its full length as this will insure an even edge when the strap is turned. Now, place the end of an orange stick at the closed end against the stitched end and with your fingers crowd the strap down on the stick to turn it right side out. Clip stitched end off and press strap with seam to one edge. The bib hem must be creased and hemmed before the neck strap is sewed onto the apron.

Make Dress-Up Aprons With Ruffle or Shirring

Women who want to look pretty in the kitchen as well as when dressed to go out will use ruffles on their aprons. If the sleeve of the garment is not to be used for pockets and such, this material can easily be cut into ruffles.

If two pieces of material are joined for the ruffle, try to use selvages and stitch a three-eighths inch seam. Hem the ruffle, using a very narrow hem.

If you are making a one-piece apron for dress-up, you will want hip tucks on each side, or cluster tucks on each side of the apron. These tucks help to take up fullness and fit the apron to the body. Three cluster tucks will do very nicely for the average apron, and the thread of the fabric should be used to guide you in stitching straight.

Your Sewing Machine

Well-finished clothes depend on proper use of the sewing machine. Here are some minor difficulties which can be corrected easily.

If your machine skips stitches, one of the following may be responsible: needle improperly set in bar; needle too short or too long; needle bent or blunt; needle too fine for the thread you are using.

Puckers in the material may be caused by tight tension, a blunt needle, too long a stitch on fine material, or a fabric which is too light to carry over the feed. In the latter case, use a newspaper or tissue under the fabric.

If your bobbin or shuttle thread tends to break, look to one of the following for the reason: incorrect threading of the bobbin; tight lower tension; bobbin wound too tightly or unevenly; bobbin wound too full.

Spring Fashion Notes

Black Swiss eyelet is used with black crepe, navy eyelet may be trimmed with a wide band of navy satin, or the hat may carry the decorative effect desired.

Pink is a favorite color as is black with touches of pink in the veiling or flowers. If you like white and wear the sailor type of hat well, you'll be in high style.

Most hats are livened with bunches of the most natural looking spring flowers. Yellow daisies, roses, peonies, violets and assorted flowers are seen.

Cool, summery looking dresses are important for daytime wear. They all stress slim, trim lines and many dresses have a high neck, while others are cut quite low.

WHEN Penny Singleton and Arthur Lake hit New York they just never stopped going; the stars of the movie's "Blondie" series and the CBS Sunday show are popular young people, and some of the season's nicest parties were given for them. "I haven't seen anything of New York, really," said Penny. "And what do you think happened to me? I gave my clothes to the hotel valet to press, and I guess 'Dagwood' did my black crepe dress; it was pressed up and down instead of across, so now it's a lot longer than it was, and so tight that I look just like a sausage in it!" But with that cute face and wide smile, nothing could spoil her looks.

PENNY SINGLETON

When you see Paramount's "The Imperfect Lady," look at the driver of the carriage in which Teresa Wright and Virginia Field ride. He's George Jenner, who was carriage footman to Queen Victoria for two years, 1892 to 1894, the period in which "The Imperfect Lady" is set. He met arriving foreign potentates and conducted them to Buckingham palace. So it's practically type casting.

"If at first you don't succeed, try, try again" and think of Ray Milland. The world seems to be his since he made "Lost Week-End," but he made three trips from London to Hollywood before he finally hit his stride as a film actor.

For a brief Shakespearean episode with Sonny Tufts and Michael Chekov in "Cross My Heart," Paramount rented a set from John Carradine which he is reported to have purchased for $50. Paramount paid Carradine $400 a week.

When George Burns and Gracie Allen take their summer vacation—June 6 to August 29—Meredith Willson will carry on for the summer, with the King Sisters and Ben Gage.

If you're interested in the career of a prospective Warner Bros. star, don't miss seeing Dorothy Malone in "Janie Gets Married"; she's one of eight players being groomed for stardom. She also has a leading role in "Cry Wolf," in which Errol Flynn and Barbara Stanwyck star.

Irene Rich, who makes her first film appearance after five years' absence from the screen in Republic's "The Angel and the Outlaw," owns and operates a 1,000 acre ranch near San Bernardino, Calif.

You'll see Ann Richards walk up a staircase, turn and go out of sight in "The Searching Wind." That was the last shot of the day, and the company ganged up on her; Director William Dieterle asked her to do it once more. So up the stairs and out of view went the blonde star. Then she came back, and found that while she was on her way up the whole company had quietly beat it.

Bill Edwards recently introduced his screen self to his fiancée, Hazel Allen—took her to a Paramount projection room where "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" was being run off. And she confessed that she'd gone to see the picture some time ago, after a hard day at the doctor's office where she's an assistant, but couldn't remember anything about it; seems she slept right through it!

Frank Readick told this one at a "Crime Doctor" rehearsal. Two elephants at the zoo were crouched back to back. When a third elephant joined them he was told to go away because they were playing. Playing what, he asked. Why, book ends!

ODDS AND ENDS—Roland Cilver, whom Paramount imported from England to play Olivia de Havilland's mid-aged suitor in "To Each His Own," returns to Hollywood to play her sister, Joan Fontaine, father in "The Emperor Waltz." . . . Sterling Hayden's resuming his acting career at Paramount. . . . Herman Goering's jewel-encrusted hunting knife now hangs on the wall of Alan Ladd's den. . . . Evelyn Keyes lost so much weight when she had the flu that it cost Columbia plenty to remodel the clothes she wears in "The Jolson Story." . . . Most of the "Cheyenne" cast got badly sunburned during the first day's shooting out of doors.

Refreshing Drinks

For a simple meal at home, for that brief stop in the afternoon when you want to relax and cool off, or for a light company snack, there's nothing quite like the cool, frosty drink. Whether you are a husky eater or a dainty snacker, you'll want to keep these refreshing recipes on file for these hot, summer months.

One woman I know keeps cool drink ingredients on a special corner in the pantry so the beverages can be ready at a moment's notice. She also keeps dainty cookies on hand so there's always refreshment if company comes or if the children get especially hungry before dinner.

Cool drinks can fortify the diet with both vitamins and minerals if you use eggs, milk and fruit or berries. But not only will they be a toast to health, for they provide that restful relaxation that is so essential to well-being.

If you want to get fancy with beverages, make colorful ice cubes by using fruit juice and water in the ice tray. Or, drop bits of leftover fruit in the ice trays before freezing.

Glasses can be garnished with mint leaves, lemon or orange slices, puffs of whipped cream or meringue. The rims may also be dipped in beaten egg white and a bit of sugar to give them that delightful, frosty look.

For beverages that add nourishment as well as sparkle, consider these milk, egg and fruit drinks. See that the children get some of them often:

Fruit Float.

(Serves 4)

- 2 eggs, well beaten
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 2/3 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup raspberries or strawberries
- Juice of 1 orange
- Juice of 2 lemons
- Cracked ice

Combine eggs, salt, water, sugar and berries. Mix to dissolve sugar. Add orange juice and lemon juice. Beat or shake thoroughly. Pour into tall glasses half filled with cracked ice. Garnish with a few whole berries.

LYNN SAYS

Quickie Lunches: Broil liver sausage slices just slightly, serve with creamed lima beans, sliced tomatoes, fruit and milk and cookies.

Leftover ham can be creamed with peas and served with shredded carrot and raisin salad, peaches and cream and a beverage.

Don't forget a dish of garden vegetable soup makes a well-balanced lunch with toasted peanut butter or bacon and tomato sandwiches.

Pork sausage links are awfully good on baked potatoes with cream gravy. A light salad of lettuce, fruited gelatin and milk tops off the meal.

Spanish Rice can be made quickly and served with a few strips of broiled bacon, a chopped vegetable salad, floating island pudding and a beverage.

When you're serving frankfurters on a bun, spread the bun with mustard mixed with butter. Accompaniments: glass of tomato juice, hot or cold, a chilled mixed fruit salad and cookies.

For the adult crowd, there are an entirely different set of beverages which are certain to delight. Both of these have coffee as a base. Do not use leftover-from-morning coffee, but make it fresh.

Brazilian Chocolate.

(Serves 4)

Place over boiling water. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly. Heat, then beat with rotary beater until frothy. Cool. Pour over cracked ice and top with whipped cream.

Iced Cofolate.

(Makes 1 quart)

- Dash of salt
- 4 cups milk
- 2 squares unsweetened chocolate
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 1 tablespoon flour
- 1 egg, well beaten

Add coffee, spices and salt to milk and heat in double boiler until scalded. Strain and return to double boiler. Add chocolate and heat until it melts. Mix sugar and flour and add gradually to chocolate and cook and stir until thickened. Then cook 5 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cool slightly; pour over egg, and blend. Chill. Pour over ice.

Mint Ade.

(Serves 6)

- 1/2 cup white corn syrup
- 1/4 cup water
- 6 stalks fresh mint
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 No. 2 can grapefruit juice
- 2 cups gingerale

Boil corn syrup and water together for 3 minutes. Remove tips from mint and crush stalks into the hot syrup. Add tips and let stand for 30 minutes. Strain. Add lemon juice and grapefruit juice. Chill thoroughly. Pour over ice in tall glasses and just before serving add gingerale. Garnish with additional mint and whole strawberries, if desired.

BASEBALL UNIONS

Unionized baseball is now in the works. We may yet see the regular umpires replaced by the NLRB with Bob Wagner stepping into "Happy" Chandler's shoes and the battery for the day including J. Caesar Petrillo or John L. Lewis.

The next few years may bring a demand for the five-inning game!

Possible news from the baseball game of tomorrow:

CHICAGO, MAY 30.—Today's game with the Yankees was stopped in the third. Players on both teams refused to continue until they were granted the right to examine the company books.

PHILADELPHIA, JULY 2.—Following the walkout of the home team and the Boston team here yesterday both clubs were taken over by the government today. Connie Mack was carried out by four members of the state militia. President Truman promised the fans the balance of the season would see the best games of which the Democratic party is capable.

NEW YORK, JULY 15.—Before the game could get under way here today both club owners had to submit to a demand that no pitcher could be removed from the box without six weeks' notice, subject to immediate reinstatement unless sufficient cause shall be established in hearings before joint state and federal boards.

Large crowds were on hand to see the first contest played under the new union rules which entitle the batter to five strikes.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., AUGUST 10.—Fans who arrived here early to see the teams warm up were surprised to find that all pre-game practice had been abolished by the National Labor Relations board following a two-months huddle on union demands. The board upheld the players' contention that batting and fielding practice constituted capitalistic exploitation of the ball players, deprived them of spare time to which they were entitled as free men and was in violation of the Wagner act.

ST. LOUIS, MO., AUGUST 4.—The new rule, under which all the pitchers on any one ball club get full credit for any victory won by any one pitcher, went into effect here this afternoon.

Next week will inaugurate the newly won union concession under which no errors are publicly called or published.

BOSTON, AUGUST 22.—No game today. Contest called off on account of picketing.

War Vets and Street Signs

A sergeant, now stationed at Okinawa, wrote home asking for the street signs from the corner of Church street and Flatbush avenue near his home in Brooklyn. The city promptly took them down and sent them to him. Ex-Pfc. Oscar Purkey wrote in today to state that he understood perfectly the desire of the Brooklyn man. "I felt this yen for street signs, especially when the fighting was on. In the Battle of the Bulge I asked for the signs from the corner of Riverside Drive and Shubert Alley at once. That shows you how groggy I was," he writes.

PEACE AT LAST

The highest priced private in the world is James Lewis Triplett of Vallejo, Calif., who has just enlisted in the air services. He has a wife and ten children, the kids ranging from under a year to 9 years of age. To make provision for all these, Uncle Sam pays Private Triplett between $300 and $400 a month. This is not paying a man to serve his country, it is underwriting a needed rest and a little quiet.

Children Will Be Happy Over Lawn Chair to Match One Made for Adults

By Ruth Wyeth Spears

A PINT size lawn chair is great fun for children. It adds interest to any group of outdoor furniture and you will find that it is often used by grown-ups instead of an ottoman or for a place to put books and magazines.

The small chair shown here matches the adult-size chair and is made with a pattern that gives a complete bill of materials, large diagrams for cutting each piece and illustrated construction steps. The seat of the chair is about ten inches high and thirteen inches deep.

This lawn chair is made with pattern 253; and the adult-size lawn chair is pattern 269. Patterns are 15c each or both patterns to one address for 25c. Send order with name and address to:

HEALTH DEPARTMENT NOTES

A good old fashioned spring house cleaning in every city and great deal toward furthering good community in Texas would do a health in this state, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, who said in Austin today, "From a practical standpoint the old adage that 'Cleanliness is next to Godliness' is still well worth emphasizing."

A general clean-up program of state-wide proportions with the objective of bettering health conditions for our citizenship should include surface cleaning, drainage, the graving of streets and alleys, the cleaning of weeds and rubbish off vacant lots.

"The destruction of mosquito breeding places and rat harborage trash and general cleaning up of all the proper disposal of garbage and premises will be," said Cox, "of inestimable value in helping to keep down summer hazards such as dysentery, typhoid, and poliomyelitis. Good community housekeeping and ordinary sanitary measures require the prompt removal of all matter in and around yards and homes in order to abate the danger of such diseases, and insure good health protection throughout the State."

Dr. Cox stressed the fact that many dangerous diseases are filth-borne, and the only possible way to control them is to eliminate the unsanitary conditions responsible for their spread.

SERVICE GUILD TO MEET

The Wesleyan Service Guild of First Methodist Church will meet at 8 p. m. next Thursday night, June 6th, in the Community Center of the Navigation Village. Hostess will be Mrs. J. F. Delony. All members are urged to attend.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE DEVINE NEWS

Christine Man Wants Hi-Way 173 Hi-Way

E. M. Johnson, stockman and farmer of Christine, was in Devine Monday, working in the interest of a state or national highway via Christine. He says a paved highway is very much needed from Junction via Christine and on towards Corpus Christi. When the railroad company proposed a road to Junction, from the junction of the I. & C. N. near Von Ormy, it laid off the proposed road as far as Christine, 35 miles further south than it ever built the road; but has a graded right-of-way that far south. Since the people who were induced to settle the Christine section were not given the proposed railroad he feels that in justice, the right-of-way those 35 miles should be given for a State or Federal highway to those people. He has enlisted the help of

According to the best authorities, the minimum daily A, D and B Complex Vitamin requirements of the average person are: A 4,000 USP Units, D 400 USP Units, B1 333 USP Units, B2 2,000 Micrograms, and approximately 10,000 Micrograms Nicotinamide. The required amounts for other B Complex Vitamins have not yet been established.

Many people do not get enough of these essential Vitamins. DO YOU? Why not play safe by taking ONE-A-DAY VITAMIN TABLETS. Each ONE-A-DAY Vitamin A and D Tablet contains 25% more of the good liver oil vitamins than the minimum daily recommended quantity. Each ONE-A-DAY Vitamin B Complex Tablet contains full minimum daily requirements of Vitamins B1 and B2 and 10,000 Micrograms of Nicotinamide together with a substantial amount of other B Vitamins. When you buy Vitamins, compare potencies and prices. Note how ONE-A-DAY Tablets conform to the average human requirements. See how reasonable the cost. Get them at your drug store.

TALLEY'S DRIVE INN OPENS

When you see the reconversion job on two long buses, painted green, set in a grove of oak trees and banked with shrubs, and topped with the longest sign in town—that's TALLEY'S DRIVE INN. Hondo's latest drive-in is located on Highway 90 on the East side of town and opened for business on Tuesday, May 28th.

Owners and operators are Mr. and Mrs. Talley S. Taylor who have been Hondo residents for several years. Mr. Taylor was formerly in the Army stationed at Hondo Army Air Field, and Mrs. Taylor sold restaurant property at Fort Stockton to join her husband here.

Talley's Drive Inn makes a specialty of "Chicken In a Basket," five select pieces of fried chicken and crisp s h o e - s t r i n g potatoes—served sans knife-and-fork. You can eat in comfort, licking your lips and your fingers too!

Peace
O, blessed peace that fills my soul
With comfort, joy and love!
It soothes my very heart today,
This gift from Heaven above.

O, that this world so full of strife
Would come to Christ today
And just surrender heart and soul
And let Him have his way!

This cruel enmity would cease,
And peace again would reign,

And "Love thy neighbor as thyself"
Be the command again.

The church with a welcome.

AN IMPORTANT MESSAGE TO THE YOUTH OF AMERICA!

The younger generation must be trained to take its place in the world of tomorrow.
The opportunities are unlimited; there's a clear road ahead.

The United States Government Through The New Peacetime Regular Army
Is offering enlistees and reenlistees new and improved educational advantages under the GI Bill of Rights

Skill in technology is important but it alone will not save us in an atomic age---We must apply the knowledge which the social sciences
---art, literature, ethics and philosophy provide if we are to preserve the traditional moral values which alone will hold the world together.

This means that America can and must encourage the broadest possible educational program for all its youth. The privileges of the GI Bill of Rights make it possible for many ambitious young men, who might not be able to afford a higher education now, to get such education as a reward for their service to their country for the next few years.

This program should be the means of not only helping to give this country the kind of Regular Army it requires but also helping to improve the educational standards of our future generation---an absolutely necessary achievement if we are to keep pace with the developments of the atomic age.

Within its borders
the Army is equipped to teach any of 200 skills and trades in its training schools. By building their future through an enlistment in the Regular Army, these men are helping America to build hers. America has a great stake in the shape of things to come. That is why the Army's recruiting campaign to build a force of Regulars has met with such success.

Thousands of farsighted young men are joining the new peacetime Army each month.
They are assuring themselves an education; they are assuring themselves an opportunity to travel and broaden their native intelligence; they are preparing themselves for their rightful place in the future of our country.

This Message is Presented as a Public Service in the Interest of Higher Education for the Youth of Our Country by

Shower-Tea Honors Recent Bride

A tea of lovely appointments combined with a miscellaneous shower was the occasion for honoring Mrs. Hilmar J. Koch, a recent bride, in the home of Mrs. M. A. Zinsmeyer, during the tea hours of Tuesday, May 21.

Purple althea decorated the living room where guests were received by Mrs. Zinsmeyer, the honoree, and Miss Cornelia Koch, and where they were registered by Miss Ellen Zinsmeyer.

In the gift room, spring flowers of various hues were arranged in vases. The candle-light dining room was beautiful with an array of sparkling cut glass and silver combined with shasta daisies and tall white tapers. The tea table was covered with a white lace cloth and centered with a bowl of the flowers on a reflector, while the buffet held an arrangement in a tall vase. Cake, salted nuts, and spiced tea were served. Mrs. Joe Martin Zinsmeyer poured the tea and Miss Emily Zinsmeyer served the cake, alternating with Mrs. W. J. Fohn and Miss Ethel Rothe, respectively.

Other hostesses assisting in the hospitality were Mrs. Ed S. Koch, Mrs. Oscar Rothe, and Mrs. Amos Finger.

The members of the house party wore informal dresses with harmonizing corsages of sweet peas. The honoree was in a lime green lace-trimmed frock and wore a white corsage. Mrs. M. A. Zinsmeyer was in white jersey printed with black and green, and her corsage was of red and white. A purple corsage was worn by Miss Koch with her dress of green crepe. Mrs. J. M. Zinsmeyer's black crepe and Miss Emily Zinsmeyer's long-sleeved black sheer were combined with bright-colored corsages.

There were about 70 guests.

"Don't bust your buttons, Pop!"

There's PLENTY of HOT WATER"

There's hot water for the whole family when you have an automatic gas water heater... hot water for baths, shaving, laundry, dishes—steaming hot water if you want it—in abundant quantities. Natural gas service is an everyday miracle providing comfort and convenience in your home, providing clean, efficient fuel in your factory.

WHAT IS THE SECRET OF THIS MIRACLE OF SERVICE?

There's really no secret at all... just huge underground reserves of natural gas, plus thousands of miles of transmission lines to carry gas from the wellhead to your burners.

United Gas Pipe Line Company, with more than 6,000 miles of main pipe lines in the Gulf South area, transports natural gas to the city gates of 169 communities in Texas alone—to 312 cities and towns in the Gulf South. The United Companies are good citizens of the area they serve—spending millions of dollars in payrolls, taxes and royalty payments every year. This money benefits every family in Texas in one way or another.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

By PAUL MALLON

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

LOAN TO BRITAIN WOULD PROMOTE SOCIALISM

WASHINGTON.—The senate debate on the proposed loan to Britain has conspicuously ducked the fact that the British government is lavishly buying its way into socialism. Some of the senate newsmen, who are the senator's severest critics, attribute the void to the broad lack of knowledge among politicians of financial matters. They should charge it, instead, to the masking operations of the Attlee government. Not even the most learned financial authorities of the empire can ascertain how the Attlee treasury has taken over the Bank of England and the mines, or how it is proceeding now to take the cable and wireless companies, railroads, steel and whatnot. The operations have been covered with secrecy and confusion worthy of an Eisenhower invasion of Europe, in which false moves and rumors were used to conceal the real intent from the enemy.

Yet sufficient general evidence is available in the government bills proposed in parliament to piece together a general outline of the scheme. Each industry is being seized in a slightly different way. The government has steadfastly refused to announce a general policy. But the actions taken so far warrant these following conclusions:

The government is buying its nation with debt. It is purchasing industries by offering government stock or securities to private owners for their private stock and securities. The price paid is rarely divulged, but seems generally to be the current market value, or better.

GOOD PRICES OFFERED

The London Times analyzed the processes so far in an effort to offer some worthwhile advice to holders of railroad securities who may be next, and reached this conclusion: "Whatever method of nationalization is adopted, railroad stocks should be retained." In short, the Times concludes the government will offer at least the current market value or better for the railroads.

Only in the taking of the Bank of England did the government tell what it was really offering. Then it gave a 3 per cent government bond for stock, but guaranteed dividends until 1966 equal to what the Bank had paid in the past 20 years. In the seizure of the coal industry alone did the treasury permit free sale of its substitute stock (there is a big debt in coal and operations have not been profitable). So the general conclusion is inescapable that the socialism of Britain represents the government issuing stock to the same people who held the private stock, at market prices, often promising them the same dividends, and in effect guaranteeing them against losses, while depriving them of influence in operations or the right to sell their stock.

This is an expensive operation. In effect, it transfers the debts of industry from private ownership to the people as a whole, making the treasury liable for success of the enterprises, at top of the war debts.

How will it work out? Not a man alive can guess. Offhand you might reasonably conclude that if the industrial operations continue profitable, the government may pay off in 20 to 25 years as contemplated. If business becomes unprofitable, the people in their taxes, will have to foot the bill—as well as the American taxpayers who are furnishing this proposed loan. Furthermore, it may be difficult for a labor government to promote profitable operations because such a government must be amenable politically to wage increases and increased operating costs for public service.

MANIPULATION POSSIBLE

But these simplest truths may not stand the test of time, because government can do anything. As it has let money rot, it can allow its special securities for each of these industries in years ahead to find levels less burdensome upon the treasury. Only imaginations unlimited can possibly conjure the limitless possibilities. Mr. Attlee's arrangements are keeping things that way. In the cables and wireless bill, there is no clear indication of prices to be paid for the involved holding company stocks. Apparently price is to be established by private bargaining between the treasury and holders of the stock.

Yet these astonishing and perplexing developments in socialism have caused remarkable little interest among the phlegmatic British. The public likes to look at the surface of things (indeed has no opportunity to do otherwise in this instance) and on the surface fair exchange seems to be no robbery. What difference does it make if the stockholders get a government security of the same value and interest rate for their private stock? So say the British of all classes.

Food and Labor Are Nation's Topics

Passage of Housing Bill Spurs Building Program; Hoover Asks World to Join in Famine Fight

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

FAMINE:

Hoover Reports

Back from his globe-girdling famine survey, former Pres. Herbert Hoover called for additional voluntary food conservation on the part of Americans and also declared that the co-operation of Russia and South American states would greatly assist in tiding hungry areas over the critical pre-harvest period.

Though stating that he saw no instances of actual starvation on his global whirl, Hoover was quick to add that available food supplies were at a dangerous low in many countries and famine would result if supplies were not replenished.

Even after trimming requests of some countries, Hoover declared that over 14 million tons of food were needed until the next harvest, with the United Kingdom requiring 2,000,000 tons; France, 1,750,000 tons; Germany 1,370,000 tons; Italy, 775,000 tons; Poland, 340,000 tons; Czechoslovakia, 290,000 tons; Belgium, 300,000 tons; Greece, 275,000 tons; Yugoslavia, 250,000 tons; Spain, 240,000 tons; Austria, 225,000 tons; the Indian ocean area, 2,886,000 tons and China and Japan, 870,000 tons each.

In asking Russia to share some of its surplus grain and calling upon South American countries to step up deliveries, Hoover said the U. S. shipment of 450 million bushels of wheat during this crop year is an unparalleled achievement. In all, the U. S. is expected to provide 4,220,000 tons of cereals; Canada, 2,300,000; Australia, 992,000; Argentina, 2,375,000; Russia, 300,000, plus lesser amounts from the United Kingdom, Brazil, Burma and Siam.

Hoover's announcement of world food needs followed close upon the department of agriculture's prediction that continuing drought in the Great Plains states would cut winter wheat production by 88 million bushels under the April 1 estimate. The crop now is set at 742,887,000 bushels.

INDIA:

Seek Compromise

As a result of the collapse in negotiations for Indian independence because of Moslem demands for a separate state, the British delegation's statement on further steps to be taken for resolving the deadlock was expected to provide a basis for continuing discussions.

In originally making its offer for Indian independence, the British government had declared that Moslem demands for a separate state should not block plans for free-

HOUSING:

Get Going

Welcoming final passage of the veterans' housing measure designed to push construction of 2,700,000 new homes by 1947, Housing Expediter Wilson Wyatt cheerfully exclaimed: "The . . . program now can be thrown into full gear."

Worked out by house and senate conferees, who labored to draw up a common bill from two different pieces of legislation, the measure represented a victory for the administration forces in that it provides subsidies of 400 million dollars to increase the production of building materials. Earlier opposed by the house, the subsidies later were approved on the strength of administration arguments that such payments would boost the flow of construction supplies without increasing the cost of new homes.

In addition to the subsidy provision, the new housing bill authorizes the government to increase home mortgage lending by one billion dollars; extends priorities and allocation power to channel materials into low-cost and medium-priced residences to December 31, 1947; establishes preference for vets in purchasing or renting new structures; gives the housing expediter broad authority to order changes in material pricing regulations, and empowers him to limit the export of lumber as long as scarcities exist in this country.

DRAFT:

O. K. Extension

Allowed only hours in which to act to prevent the extinction of the selective service act, the senate accepted stiff house amendments to the draft calling for cessation of inductions of fathers and teenagers.

Passage of the measure extending selective service until July 1 resulted from rapid-fire congressional action in the midst of senate deliberations over approval of the multi-billion dollar British loan and restrictive labor legislation. With the senate pausing in its discussion of these issues to o.k. existing draft legislation until July 1 to beat the expiration deadline, the house took advantage of the time element to dilute the draft and force its re-consideration to the upper chamber for reconsideration.

WASHINGTON DIGEST

Taft Looms as 1948 GOP Hope

By BAUKHAGE

News Analyst and Commentator.

WNU Service, 1616 Eye Street, N.W., Washington, D. C.

Along about June of any election year, when a lot of simple souls are thinking about moonlight and roses, electric fans, and where to go for a summer vacation, a lot of longer-range planners are wondering about next winter's coal supply, harvest time, and many other things a lot further away than the fly on your nose. Among these are the politicians.

It's a great time to lean back in a chair in the Senate office building or thereabouts, open another bottle of White Rock, light another seegar, and burble on about what's going to happen come November, and still more intriguing, to prognosticate on presidential possibilities.

It's fun for the newcomers because it's so easy for them to predict, in the light of what's happening right now, just what will happen then. It's still more fun for the old timers because they know that the voters who may not love you in the autumn often seem very palsy in the spring—and vice versa.

Since there isn't much use in speculating on who the Democratic presidential nominee will be, it's more interesting to talk about Republican possibilities.

Perhaps that is why, along about the middle of May, the heavy backers of Bob Taft began to be heard from. Up until then, most of the talk in the couloirs was how Bricker was the No. 1 boy, and how Stassen mustn't even be mentioned above a whisper. Even Stassen's own men decided it was better for the young man from Minnesota to keep his head down so he wouldn't attract any lightning until he had found out whether his forums were more potent than the against-em's.

Now it's getting to be more serious fun to talk about Taft. Taft wants to be President. He has wanted to be President before. He is pretty much master of the Republican organization, but even if he weren't, Bricker, his present friend and rival, is more "beatable," despite the good impression he made on his speaking tour before the last convention . . . what with the leftist look in so many veterans' eyes.

Bricker has a staunch and solid conservative following. But it is a little too solidly conservative. Taft could hardly be called a radical. In fact, his political garden has never produced even a pale and lonely pink. On the other hand, his supporters prudently can point to many a constructively liberal measure which has had his blessing.

Only the other day, I was talking with an ardent administration official who has been battling for a measure badly battered by conservatives of both political stripes. I asked him if he could expect to retrieve in the senate a certain provision in his legislation, lost in the house.

"Oh, yes," he answered, "Bob Taft will go along on that."

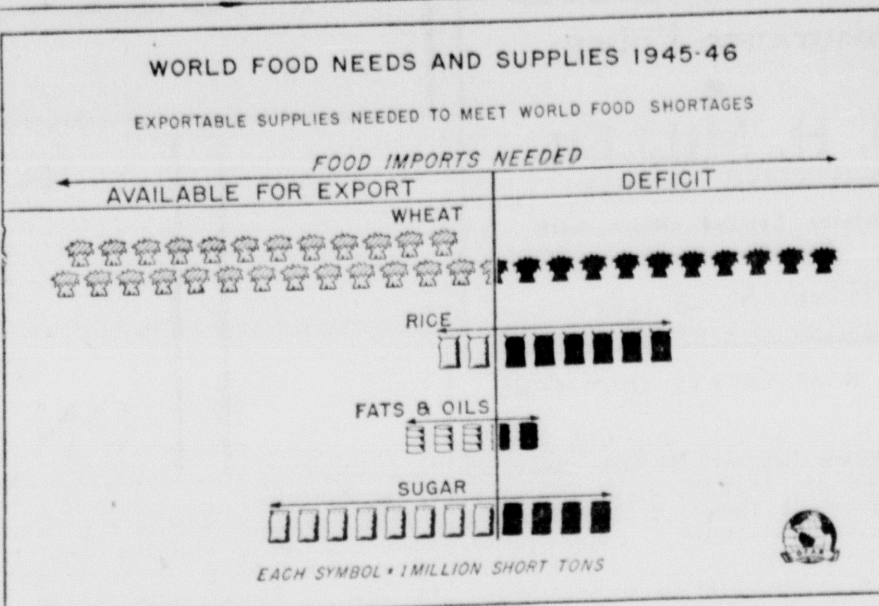

And Taft has a good liberal record on such mass-appeal measures as housing.

The Republicans don't have to deal with the old-line bosses to the extent that the Democrats do and in two of the larger cities where the Republican machine is vital—Philadelphia and Cincinnati—everything would be jake so far as Taft is concerned. He, himself, is kingpin in his home state organization . . . and Mr. Pew, who makes the Republican wheels go round in Pennsylvania, wanted Taft in '40 and '44. It is to be presumed he'll feel the same in '48.

This doesn't eliminate other brilliant possibilities, including Messrs. Stassen and Vandenberg.

Mr. Vandenberg has done a lot of the molding himself. This could work both ways. On the one hand, the energy and devotion with which Mr. Vandenberg has applied himself to foreign affairs, and the powerful influence he has exerted, have greatly increased his silhouette on the international horizon. On the other hand, these activities, both in quantity and quality, have taken him far afield from the usual political approach to a Republican presidential nomination.

It may be there is a niche in the making that would need a man of his proportion to fill but one Democrat said to me the other day: "Sometimes it looks as if Van would rather be right than President."

DIPLOMACY:

On Dollar Basis

Having used its great material resources to balance the scales for allied military victory over the axis, the U. S. now is acting to employ its tremendous wealth for the stabilization of political conditions abroad to promote free exchange between nations.

Popularly known as "dollar diplomacy," the administration's first open application of the policy in the postwar period was to Poland and China, where Communist influence has been strong and shaped to serve Russia's political and economic interests.

In the case of Poland, the U. S. suspended a 90 million dollar credit to the Soviet-sponsored Warsaw government on charges that it had violated its pledge to increase freedom of movement within the country. First, the U. S. said that the government had censored an American reporter's dispatch regarding a critical speech made by a Peasant party leader, and second, it had failed to publish terms of the U. S. credit providing for political freedom in Poland.

Taken back by the U. S. action, the Polish embassy in Washington declared that it could categorically deny that any censorship existed in Poland, and explained that the terms of the loan had not arrived in Warsaw in time to permit their publication up to the time of the U. S. credit cancellation.

Meanwhile, Gen. George C. Marshall was given full control over a proposed half billion dollar loan to China in his efforts to weld the Nationalist and Communist forces together into a central government and create a unified country.

UNRRA:

Seeking to prevent death-dealing riderpest among surviving cattle and water buffalo herds of China, one million doses of a new type vaccine were flown by the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation administration to Shanghai as a gift of the U. S. and Canada.

Emphasizing the significance of the gift, UNRRA Director LaGuardia declared every water buffalo or bullock saved for the plow means the assurance of that much more food for the needy.

That Nagging Backache

May Warn of Disordered Kidney Action

Modern life with its hurry and worry, irregular habits, improper eating and drinking—its risk of exposure and infection—throws heavy strain on the work of the kidneys. They are apt to become over-taxed and fail to filter excess acid and other impurities from the life-giving blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, headache, dizziness, getting up at night, leg pains, swelling—feel constantly tired, nervous, all worn out. Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

Try Doan's Pills. Doan's help the kidneys to pass off harmful excess body waste. They have had more than half a century of public approval. Are recommended by grateful users everywhere. Ask your neighbor!

Washington

The EVER GREEN STATE

By EDWARD EMERINE
WNU Features.

THE Oregon country, including the most northwesterly portion of all, the present state of Washington, was the unwanted and all-but-forgotten land of a little more than a century ago.

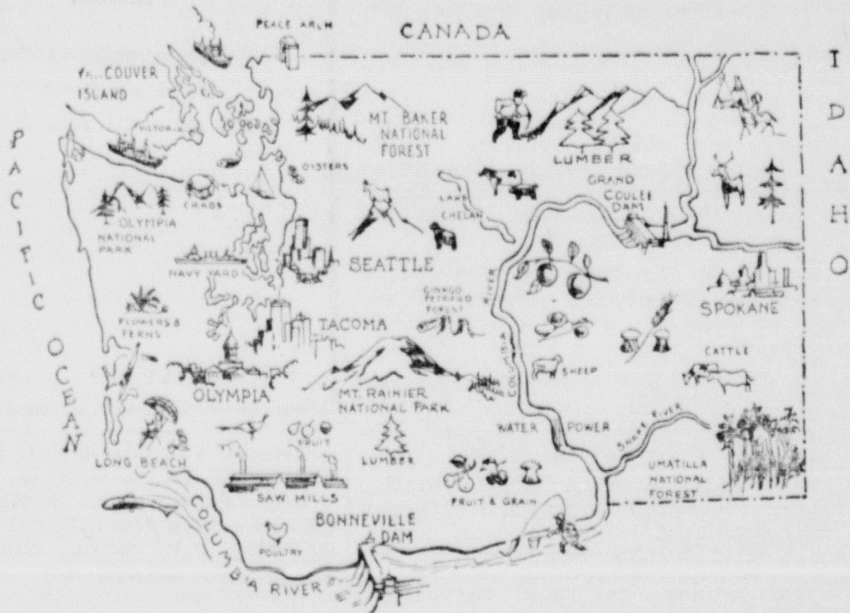

Back East they felt that the Rocky mountains were the natural western boundary of the United States and refused to vote one cent for the development of a region so far away. There had been two wars with the British; why chance a third? Let the British have it. The United States had all the land it needed.

But those thousands of pioneers who had urged their oxen along the Oregon trail and crawled over the mountains thought differently. They had found a good land, rich in beauty and vitality, where the mountains and forests came down to meet the Pacific ocean. The British wanted the country merely for trade with the Indians. The pioneers wanted it for their homes, their farms, their ranches, their dream cities. And they wanted it to be a part of the United States.

They had traveled hundreds of weary miles, fighting Indians along the way, burying loved ones in unmarked graves. And now they had cleared their land, built houses, planted crops, and knew they had found an area with resources so vast and varied that even they were bewildered by the prospects. Somehow the East and Washington, D. C., must be told about it, made to believe.

Washington finally heard, and the cry of "Fifty-four Forty or Fight" went up. The settlers cleaned their rifles and waited. If the British wanted war, they were ready. But war was averted by the treaty of 1846, in which joint American and British occupancy was ended. A compromise boundary of the 49th parallel was established, and the Oregon country became a part of the United States.

The Columbia river, however, remained a natural dividing line running through Oregon territory. The settlers "north of the river" wanted a territory of their own. As early the White House, Pres. Benjamin Harrison, issued a proclamation on November 11 that Washington was admitted as a state.

When the Indian wars ended, the eastern part of the territory was Washington is rich in minerals — coal, gold, silver, lead, mercury and zinc. It has clays, granite, sandstone, marble, limestone and cement. Also found in the state are antimony, arsenic, tungsten and platinum.

Standing timber in Washington includes Douglas fir, yellow and white pine, spruce, larch, cedar and others. Normally, Washington leads all states in lumber output, shipping its products all over the world. It has wood pulp and paper mills as well as other industries built on wood products.

On Washington's coast are innumerable harbors on which Seattle, Tacoma, Everett, Olympia, Vancouver and other important cities are located. This great commercial area is the nearest American gateway to the ports of Asia and handles most of the shipping to and from Alaska as well as world trade through the Panama canal. During World War II the shipbuilding and airplane manufacturing industry reached gigantic proportions and is expected to continue.

Coupled with its almost-unlimited natural resources is Washington's mighty output of hydro - electric power for industry. The Grand Coulee dam is part of a reclamation project that will ultimately irrigate 1,200,000 acres of land and produce electrical power far in excess of present needs. The Bonneville dam and others also contribute to the generation of power.

Washington, however, remains chiefly agricultural. It leads all states by far in the production of apples and is high in output of other fruits such as pears, peaches, cherries, grapes, apricots, prunes and berries. Other crops are wheat, barley, oats, corn, alfalfa and clover hay, sugar beets, peas and hops. Huge herds of cattle and sheep graze throughout the state, and horses, hogs, chickens and turkeys are grown profitably on most farms and ranches.

In the eastern part of the state, Washington is semi-arid, with irrigation used extensively. Its grain and cattle industries thrive there. West of the Cascades the rainfall is extremely heavy, ranging as high as 80 inches annually, with a resultant profusion of vegetation.

The people of Washington have a rich heritage of thrift and courage and they retain the pioneer spirit that led them through the perils of settlement. They have the vision, too, for greater strides tomorrow.

as 1845 they had carved the area into two enormous counties, Lewis and Clark. More settlers were crossing over and sentiment for a division was evident. A group met at Cowlitz Prairie to memorialize congress. They were not heard. They met again in 1852 at Monticello and sent another petition to Washington.

Joseph Lane, Oregon territorial delegate, offered his aid and introduced a bill to organize the territory of Columbia, for that was to be its name. The bill was passed, but not before it was amended to change the name to Washington territory. On March 2, 1853, just two days before he left the White House, Pres. Millard Fillmore signed it.

Washington territory extended from the continental divide to the Pacific ocean, including what is now the northern part, or panhandle, of Idaho. But the settlers were not yet satisfied. Agitation for statehood began and continued for nearly 15 years. In 1889 they were successful and Pres. Grover Cleveland signed the bill—a month before he left the White House. At a convention in Olympia on July 4, that year, a constitution was drawn up, and at an election on October 1 it was adopted by the citizens. A new man in Rolling Wheat Fields of Eastern Washington.

The 100,000 who gathered at Louisville for the Kentucky Derby offered a keen cross section of the sporting viewpoint. For they came from practically every state, and all are sports - minded. Outside of the Derby itself, I found that they were talking about the other turf classics, the two pennant races and the Louis-Conn fight.

It was rather amazing to hear the number backing Conn if the odds remain around 3 to 1, or perhaps a trifle less. One well-known sportsman from the Far West told me that a big rush of Conn money had begun to arrive. The main theory seemed to be that while both men had been away from the ring for four years, Conn was still four years younger and he could afford to lose that much time to better advantage than could Louis.

So far as the two pennant races are concerned, most of the sentiment on the American league side belongs to the Boston Red Sox. The angle being that Owner Tom Yawkey had spent too much money to keep on missing pennants forever, and that both Yawkey and Boston rated a flag. The early showing of the Red Sox indicated that they may be even stronger than the pre-season dope indicated, because their pitching is better than it originally looked.

I found that the majority with whom I talked still don't believe that the Yankees can get enough consistent pitching to win. They rate Spud Chandler as one of the best in either league, but they also say that a pennant race is a heavy burden for the one right arm. Chandler is on his way to beat his great 1943 record, when he won 20 games and lost only 4. Spud still figures he might just as well have won 23 and lost only 1 that year. He always has been a hard-working, bear-down pitcher and he still has his stuff intact.

Lots of Dodger Fans

While I found that the National league fans were naturally pulling for their home teams, such as the Cubs and Cardinals, their outside sympathy still remains with the Dodgers. It is surprising what a strong nationwide following the Dodgers have. The enthusiasm of Brooklyn itself, on the baseball side, has a lot to do with this. In picking a World Series contender from the National league, the Dodger vote would be overwhelming. Their early rush to the front only started louder cheering.

Few believe that any team is going to beat out the Cardinals when the season finally swings into a steady grind. They look to have too many good ballplayers to be headed off by any team now in sight.

Almost every other spectator wanted me to pick the winner of the Louis-Conn meeting. The only answer is that thus far neither has come into his real training period—at least, far enough along to give any true line. The only good line one can get must come in the last two weeks, when the tip-off should be due.

1946 Backfield Stars

I also ran into a number of leading football coaches at the recent Derby among the vast assemblage from the 48 states. Two of these were Wallie Butts of Georgia and Paul Bryant of Kentucky. They were talking about the job selectors are going to have in naming the four best backs of the coming season.

"For example," Wallie Butts said, "who can name a better all-around back than Charley Trippi of Georgia, who, as a passer, runner, tackler or blocker, has everything a star back needs. And he is exceptionally good at them all."

Paul Bryant, who had a fine record at Maryland last fall, began to figure out the leading backs. "Trippi is certainly one of the best," he said. "But, in addition, there still are Blanchard and Davis from West Point to be remembered. There will be Bud Young at Illinois, Bob Fenimore at Oklahoma A. and M.; and there also will be Harry Gilmer at Alabama. And don't think these will complete the list. There will be others who can't be overlooked. There should be at least 10 or 12 great backs and I don't mean merely pretty good. For example, there is also Wedemeyer from St. Mary's, who will have more support than he could call on last fall."

The Big Batting Race

The expected batting race among Ted Williams, Joe DiMaggio and Dick Wakefield finds the Red Sox slugger showing most of the early foot. Williams has been belting away at a .350 clip or better, with DiMaggio down below .270. Wakefield has been of little help to the Tigers, with a mark under .240. Dom DiMaggio has been outshining them all with an average above .400, and Charley Keller also is riding high.

AROUND THE HOUSE

Have a place in the kitchen where you can sit down to do your work—and use it.

To avoid cutting the material when removing buttons, slide a comb under the button and cut the thread with a razor blade.

Fold household linens over the clothesline with hems together. Prevents their tearing in the wind.

A light dessert is best after a full, substantial evening meal. Keeps you from feeling groggy the remainder of the evening.

When making a cotton dress for little daughter, hem a square of the material for a hanky to match. Later this may provide the matching patch if daughter tears her dress.

Before peeling onions, dip them in boiling water for a moment. Then peel, beginning at the root and peeling upward. This will keep those tears away.

A pretty decorative effect may be achieved by slipping pressed leaves under the cellophane cover of the lamp shade.

Advertising

An advertising campaign is being studied—a campaign in which our facilities will be made known to industrial concerns with the view in mind of the establishment of such plants in Hondo. This advertising can be done by "word of mouth" also—that is where we all can enter the picture.

United States Chamber of Commerce
The National Chamber's Annual Meeting is a thing of the past—a meeting in which, as General Manager Ralph Bradford put it, "the business of living" was discussed.

This meeting brought forth a new President of the United States Chamber of Commerce—William K. Jackson of Boston, Massachusetts. Mr. Jackson succeeded Eric Johnston of Spokane, Washington.

Declarations of policies on industrial relations, price control and inflation, housing and the food situation attracted the widest interest among the many resolutions adopted in general sessions. Analyzing the various policies adopted bring forth the following:

"Industrial peace and good will between employer and employees are found only where there is mutual respect and genuine acceptance of their respective rights and prerogatives."

"Collective bargaining should be carried on with conscientious endeavor to understand each other's problems and in the interest of stabilizing employment relations."

"Since V-J Day our policies have been based largely on the conception that we are faced with a problem of mere price control. The failure of these policies is due to a misdiagnosis of our problems. We HAVE wage inflation, we HAVE currency inflation and a delayed or frustrated price inflation. The solution can come only through a coordinated policy which deals not purely with the symptoms of inflation, as does price control, but with the real causes of the inflationary pressures which abound in many sectors of the economy."

"Price adjustments on building materials should be made at once and other encouragement given for the release of the country's productive capacity which is ample to take care of the housing demand, needed industrial, commercial and farm building, and modernization and repairs."

"The Chamber of Commerce of the United States, assembled at its Thirty-Fourth Annual Meeting, pledges its whole hearted support to the effort of mitigating suffering through lack of food. We urge each American through his individual and community effort to cooperate in this endeavor to alleviate hunger."

Lest We Forget

The drive for food for the suffering people of many countries is on—give it your support.

HONDO LEGIONNAIRES LOSE TO DEVINE

The Hondo Legionnaires tangled with a rejuvenated Devine nine Sunday at the latter's diamond and came out on the short end of a 9 to 2 score.

The Devine team, led by Joe Vance, former National League player, included several stars from Kelly Field in their lineup. Castillo, third pitcher used by Devine, fanned the first three men to face him and totaled five strike outs and allowed only a scratch hit in the 3 1/2 innings he worked.

Hondo used three pitchers, Sandoval, Hernandez and Prunedo, all pitching good ball, but the Devine boys had on their batting togs and gathered 12 hits. Scott, playing in the Devine lineup had three hits—a single, double and homer.

Next Sunday the Legionnaires will play Brackettville here.

Starvation Overseas Can Breed Another World War

BY FAITH BALDWIN

THE EMERGENCY FOOD COLLECTION ON BEHALF OF UNRRA GIVES EACH OF US THE PRIVILEGE OF CONTRIBUTING MONEY, FOOD IN TIN CANS OR BOTH, TO THE PEOPLE OF STARVING AND WAR-MANGLED COUNTRIES.

IT IS A PRIVILEGE, AND FROM A COMMON-SENSE VIEWPOINT IT IS IMPERATIVE. THOSE WHO SOMEHOW SURVIVE A LONG PERIOD OF STARVATION BECOME WARPED, NOT ONLY IN BODY.

THE OLD WILL DIE, MERCIFULLY FOR THEM; BUT THE YOUNG WILL STRUGGLE TO LIVE, FILLING THEIR BLOATED STOMACHS WITH GRASS ROOTS, GARBAGE, ANYTHING.

IN ORDER TO LIVE THEY WILL LIE, STEAL, OR MURDER, FOR SELF-PRESERVATION IS A PRIMAL LAW.

IT IS TO THE YOUNG THAT WE LOOK FOR WORLD PEACE, UNITY, AND ORDERLY GOVERNMENT; BUT PEOPLE WHO HAVE ALWAYS BEEN HUNGRY ARE NOT INTERESTED IN IDEALS. EVENTUALLY THEY WILL BE INTERESTED IN ANOTHER WAR.

IF WE FEED THOSE WHO NOW STARVE WE MAY WELL BE PROTECTING OUR OWN CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN FROM THE BURNING BOMB, THE SHATTERING GUNS, THE SLOW OR SUDDEN DEATH.

LOOK AT IT IN ANOTHER WAY: IF YOU HAVE NEVER SEEN A STARVING CHILD, IMAGINE ONE. THEN LOOK AT THE CHILD YOU LOVE. WILL THE CONTRAST HELP YOU SLEEP NIGHTS?

CENTURIES AGO IT WAS ORDERED BY A COMPASSION THAT KNEW NEITHER RACE, CREED OR COLOR, "FEED MY LAMBS." CAN WE AFFORD TO IGNORE THIS PLEA, KNOWING WE ARE ALL CHILDREN OF GOD? GIVE IN HIS NAME—IN THE NAME OF ALL HUMANITY!
